

Westchester Art Workshop Anniversary ▲

County Executive Andrew Spano, Director of the Art Workshop Abre Chen and others congratulate outstanding faculty awardees at the 80th anniversary celebration of The Westchester Art Workshop held April 6 at the White Plains County Center. The 22,000-square-foot facility annually enrolls more than 4,400 students in nearly 400 credit courses and serves as a key center to the county's arts scene. Its 13 studios are among the best designed in the county.

Round Town

Thanks for Giving Gala ►

Approximately 550 people attended the Thanks for Giving Gala held recently to show appreciation for the unparalleled support the White Plains Hospital Center has received throughout the years from its donors and constituents. Sponsored by the Auxiliary of WPHC, the event raised over $35,000. Pictured at right are (l. to r.) Martin Berger, Chairman of Robert Martin Company; Mayor Joseph M. Delfino; Janelle Berger, co-chair of the gala; and Greg Berger, managing director/partner of Robert Martin Company.

Relay For Life of White Plains